CONSIDER YOUR EYES.

It's often said that sight is the most valuable of the senses. Take care of it. If you need glasses, wear them. If you don't, don't wear them. But be sure whether you need them or not. Consult our Mr. Kinsman, Eye strain is known to cause many cases of dizziness, headache and nausea. Proper glasses remove the cause and cure the complaint.

If you will have our Mr. Kinsman examine your eyes he will tell you whether they are the cause of the trouble or not. The examinations are thorough and the advice given can be absolutely depended upon as the best science has at her command.

COLLEGE FUNCTION.

Junior G. W. U. Medical Class Gives Annual Dance.

A brilliant college function in the form of an annual dance was given last evening by the junior medical class of George Washington University, at Pythian Temple. The dancing hall was richly and tastefully decorated with ferns and American beauty roses, the class flowers and festoons of blossoms and smilax were interwoven with the class colors and suspended in graceful curves between the pillars at the sides of the room. The stage was banked at the rear by a solid mass of verdant foliage, producing the effect of receding terraces of growing vegetation. From the center of the ceiling was suspended by heavy sliken cords of buff and blue, the university colors, a gorgeous urn of roses, from the circumference of which alternating loops of buff and blue ribbons radiated to all sides of the hall, where they were caught up in rosettes and bows. G. W. U. banners and force were in carried to the control of the contr and flags were in evidence everywhere, lending to the scene the true tone and spirit of college life.

As the guests arrived they were welcomed at the door by the reception committee, Mr. John H. Littlefield, Mr. Frank J. Brown and Mr. George H. Hart. The dancing commenced at 9 o'clock and con-tinued int the wee sma' hours. During the intermission at midnight, entertainment was furnished by the Junior Medical Glee Club in the form of college songs and other stunts. For those not dancing a number of special forms of amusement were provided and several of the original novelties introduced proved exceedingly popular. As the result of a queer guessing contest prizes were won by Miss Ever-ett and Mr. E. J. Horgan. Mr. J. T.

Wolfe sang two solos.

The music was furnished by the Huntress Symphony Orchestra.

As the strains of the last waltz faded away the company repaired to the banquet hall, where an elaborate lunch was served. During the repast Mr. E. R. Noyes acted as toastmaster and various members re-as toastmaster and various members responded with enthusiasm to such toasts as "The Class of '08." "Juniors on Deck," "The Medical Man's Maiden," "The Doctor's Wife," "Is Dancing Compatible with Medicine." etc. Some of the addresses were replete with wit and humor, and again and again the hall resounded with the laugh-ter of the merry makers. The success of the affair was due to the energetic and well-directed efforts of President Littlefield and the following com-mittee: Frederick C. Weber, chairman; Harry A. Ong, Fred S. Avery, Wm. A. Bryan. Ernest D. Everett. Below is a list of patrons: Misses Margaret Everett, Grace Everett, Alice L. Baker, Hannah Browning, Flor-ence I. Morrill. Rowena Y. Burwell, Jennie Page Avery, Ella Parke Parry, Mrs. E. W. Smith, Mrs. Frank J. Brown, Miss A. the Misses Beulah Jones, Blanche Neff, Berneatte Kelly, Edna Wade, Eva Little, Lena Hafle, Mary Seamark, Willie May Donohoe and Messrs. E. Weeks, G. A. Bonnet, C. H. Shepherd and O. Easterday. The out-of-town guests were Miss Anna Townsend of New York and Messrs. W. H. Rider and H. T. Combs of Baltimore.

Mrs. Vina M. Calhoun, department president of the Woman's Relief Corps, has returned to Washington after a pleasant visit to relatives and friends in the east. She was accompanied by her husband, Col. Richard Calhoun, commander of Grant Post, G. A. R.

The Misses Eva and Emma Burch of Brightwood, Va., are on a visit to their grandmother, Mrs. M. E. Burch, 1152 25th street northwest, where they will be pleased to see their friends.

Judge and Mrs. Frank H. Thomas of 3200 13th street are spending Thanksgiving with friends at West Point N Y Wolfe.

Funeral of Miss Harriet White. The funeral of Miss Harriet R. White, for many years a teacher in the public schools, took place last evening at 8 o'clock from her late residence, 1443 Fairmont street northwest. The interment was in Congressional cemetery. The death of Miss White occurred several days ago while she was on a visit to her brother in New York. For some time previous to her visit to her relative, it is stated, Miss White was not feeling well. Her condition upon her arrival in New York became gradually worse, it is said, until the end came, as stated. Miss White taught the sixth grade class of the Opening Drill at Fort Myer.

The opening drill of the season was given yesterday afternoon by the cavalry and artillerymen stationed at Fort Myer. There was a large attendance of the society folk of the capital city, together with a number of the foreign military attaches from the legations. Troop F of the 13th Cavalry, under the command of Capt. Preston, and the 3d Battery of Field Artillery, under Capt. Horn, participated in the drill. The skillful riding of the cavalrymen and the maneuvering of the artillerymen excited the admiration of the visitors.

DOLAN. In sad but loving remembrance of our dear mother, ELIZABETH SAMUEL DOLAN, who departed this life one year ago yester-day—November 23, 1905. It seems so hard to live, dear mother, Without your presence here; That gentle, loving voice of yours Our aching hearts to cheer.

Where'er our course may run, In everything to call on God, And say. "Thy will be done." BY HER DEVOTED DAUGHTERS AND SON.

WIN. Sacred to the memory of my beloved husband, WILLIAM GWIN, who entered into rest five years ago today—November 24, 1901.

He passed away like a summer breeze, With scarce a parting sigh;

He passed away from this dark world, To dwell with Christ on high.

BY HIS WIFE.

LAUER. In loving remembrance of MILDRED D. LAUER, who died one year ago tomorrow—No-vember 25, 1905. one year ago our darling child
Was 'aid away to rest;
She was our earthly pride and joy,
But God knows ever best,
BY HER AUNT DOROTHY.
